

Vibrato Exercise - Violin

Before you start: Practice the motion of going up and down the fingerboard with great form – the left wrist should be straight, the left thumb should be relaxed, and there should be flexibility in your fingers and your whole arm.

The following exercise is repeated in different rhythms. For each note set use one finger to shift between each note.

Quarter notes:

Eighth notes:

Triplet 8th's:

16th notes:

Remember to always keep an eye on your left hand form for great flexibility as you perform this exercise!
